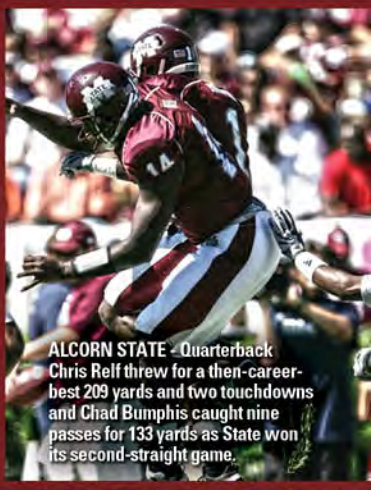
2010 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

GEORGIA - State got its first SEC win as Arceto Clark pulled in a 33-yard touchdown to seal the game against Georgia. The Bulldog defense began a string of dominant performances in the victory.

MEMPHIS - Redshirt freshman quarterback Tyler Russell was named SEC Freshman of the Week against Memphis, completing 13-16 passes for 256 yards and four touchdowns.



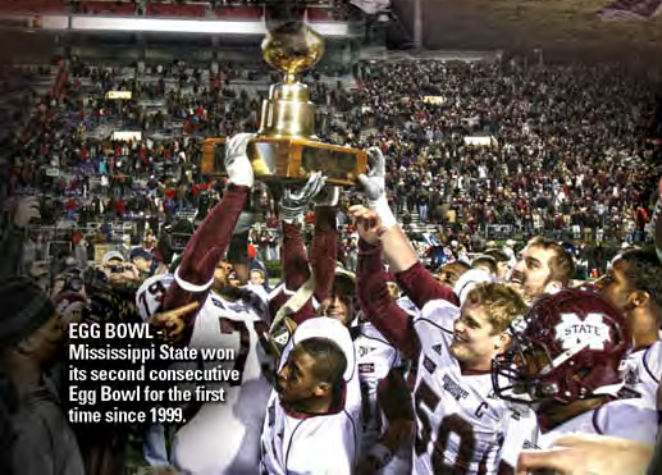
ALCORN STATE - Quarterback Chris Relf threw for a then-career-best 209 yards and two touchdowns and Chad Bumphis caught nine passes for 133 yards as State won its second-straight game.

HOUSTON - Sophomore DB Corey Broomfield had two interceptions against Houston, including a 27-yard interception return for a touchdown.

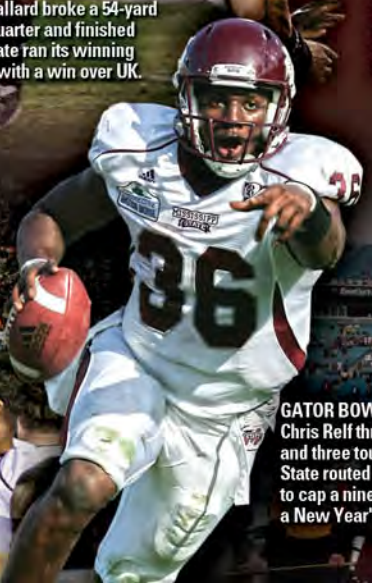
HOUSTON - Junior Vick Ballard had a breakout day with 14 carries for 134 yards and three touchdowns against Houston.

UAB - State won its fifth straight with a tight game against UAB. Redshirt freshman LaDarius Perkins saw his most extensive action, and rushed 18 times for 131 yards and scored a pair of TDs.

KENTUCKY - Vick Ballard broke a 54-yard run in the opening quarter and finished with 103 yards as State ran its winning streak to six games with a win over UK.



EGG BOWL - Mississippi State won its second consecutive Egg Bowl for the first time since 1999.



FLORIDA - The Bulldogs hung on to a 10-7 lead in the closing moments to push their win streak to four games and earn the team's first national ranking in nearly 10 years.

FLORIDA - Senior kicker Sean Brauchle opened the scoring with a 31-yard field goal in the first quarter.

EGG BOWL - LaDarius Perkins led a banged-up Bulldog squad to an Egg Bowl victory with 319 all-purpose yards - second highest total in school history.

GATOR BOWL - Quarterback Chris Relf threw for 281 yards and three touchdowns as State routed Michigan 52-14 to cap a nine-win season with a New Year's Day victory.

PRESEASON MEDIA CONFERENCE

Mississippi State will hold its annual preseason media conference Monday, August 8, at 2 p.m., at the Bryan Athletic Administration Building media conference room. Head coach Dan Mullen will address the media and take questions for 30 minutes, after which selected players will be available for approximately 30 minutes for interview purposes in the Bryan Building. Contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office for specific player requests.

DAN MULLEN INTERVIEWS

All interviews with head football coach Dan Mullen should be directed through the MSU Athletic Media Relations office. Please contact Joe Galbraith at 662-325-2703 to arrange an interview time.

Mullen has three scheduled interview opportunities during game-week and media representatives are encouraged to make use of these question-and-answer situations. Mullen is also generally available after practice, but media members must coordinate those opportunities through Galbraith.

SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE (MSU - Begins Sept. 4)

MSU will conduct a Sunday teleconference with Coach Mullen at 12:00 noon (CT). This is generally a 30-minute conference call that reviews the previous week's game; however, the upcoming game's media is encouraged to use this opportunity to speak to the MSU head coach. Contact the MSU Media Relations office for the teleconference number.

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE (MSU - Begins Aug. 29)

Coach Mullen will conduct a weekly media conference each Monday prior to an MSU game. The conference will be conducted at the Bryan Athletic Administration Building. Coach Mullen's press conference begins at 1:00 p.m. (CT). Selected players will be available following Mullen's presentation (at approximately 1:30 p.m.). To request specific players, media members must contact Jay Middleton in the MSU Media Relations Office (662-325-2703) by 3:00 p.m. the Sunday preceding each respective media conference.

WEDNESDAY TELECONFERENCE (SEC - Begins Aug. 31)

Coach Mullen will join the league's other 11 coaches on the SEC's Wednesday teleconference. Coach Mullen's 10-minute segment is scheduled from 11:30-11:40 a.m. (CT). The teleconference phone number can be obtained by calling the SEC or the MSU Media Relations Office. The SEC provides an archived copy of the teleconference at www.secsports.com for media replay.

WEEKLY PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our players are encouraged; however, all interviews must be arranged through the Athletic Media Relations Office. This policy facilitates the orderly scheduling and completion of the desired interview. During game week, all player interviews need to be arranged at least 24 hours in advance. Please coordinate all requests with the MSU Athletic Media Relations office.

Players will be available at the press conference. No freshmen will be available to media until at least after the season-opening game.

MSU Athletic Media Relations will not supply the media home or cellular telephone numbers for Bulldog student-athletes. Likewise, training room, locker room and apartment/dormitory areas are considered private player areas and are off-limits to the media.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Several preseason practices will be open to media and the public, including videographers and photographers. All media members are encouraged to gather all practice footage needed at these open practice sessions. Unless otherwise announced, all other practice times will be closed to the media.

Contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations office to arrange any requests of assistant coaches. Players MAY NOT be interviewed after Tuesday night during a game week.

MSU ON THE INTERNET

Visit the official Mississippi State Athletics home page on the Internet at: http://www.mstateathletics.com. The site provides updated statistics, game notes and other pertinent football information to visitors as well as live statistics and audio links for all of MSU's football games.

An abbreviated transcription of head football coach Dan Mullen's Monday press conference each week is available on MSU's athletic web site. The site carries Mullen's Monday press conference live for media members who subscribe to the site and cannot attend the conference in person. The website also covers selected preseason and game-week football practices, including post-practice interviews with the Bulldog head coach.

The site also offers up-to-date information on all of State's 16 varsity sports, including schedules and results, player and coach biographies as well as the latest news from the Mississippi State athletic program. Links to the NCAA, the Southeastern Conference and the other 11 SEC schools are also provided.

MEDIA WILL CALL

A media will call window will be operated on game days at the Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field Ticket Office (south end zone) for the distribution of credentials which have not been mailed. Proper ID will be required.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of season and individual-game parking spaces reserved for the media are available near Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, no motor homes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking. Parking pass requests for satellite trucks should be made at least one week in advance.

HOTEL ROOMS

The Athletic Media Relations office has a limited number of rooms reserved for media use during the 2011 football season. As you make plans for this season and need assistance with accommodations, please contact our office as soon as possible.

REAL-TIME INTERNET POLICY

Mississippi State retains the rights to the distribution of play-by-play, drive-by-drive, statistical material and photographs of Mississippi State football during and following game action, just as it retains the rights to the video and audio description of game action. All rights to the dissemination of audio, video and real-time material is granted on a contractual basis only. Failure to abide by these restrictions may result in revocation of press credentials.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Mississippi State's six home football games in 2011 must be made through the MSU Athletic Media Relations Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made through the SportsSystems online credentialing system. Please contact the MSU Athletic Media Relations office for any further questions.

Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers, radio stations and television stations which cover MSU football on a regular basis. Due to space limitations, weekly publications, non-broadcasting radio representatives and on-line services may not be granted credentials. Student publications, radio stations and web sites that do not regularly cover MSU or its opponent, will be limited to one working media credential and/or one sideline photo pass, if applicable. Other credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers, and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box. Media credential holders who violate this policy risk forfeiture of future credentials. Media credentials must be requested at least 48 hours prior to the requested game.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the sideline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respective areas. Press box or sideline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and news organizations who allow credentials to fall into improper hands will have the credentials revoked for the remainder of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee and the SEC regarding sideline control to insure the sideline is a working media area. The following guidelines are adhered to:

1.) Each photographer is required to wear an armband.

2.) Armbands must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup, at the base of the media elevator at Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. Display the photo credential to the media relations representative there and receive an armband with a corresponding number. Both the credential and the armband must be worn on the field.

3.) After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area, on the playing field, or in the 12-foot area between the photo limit line and sideline.

4.) In accordance with NCAA policies, no freelance photographers will be credentialed.

5.) Cutline writers, messengers and equipment carriers are not permitted in the sideline armband area. Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing field. This will insure that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.

6.) Tripods are not permitted in the sideline armband area. Monopods are permissible.

7.) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Mississippi State officials will recognize the NCAA's 10-minute cooling-off period following each MSU game this season, home and away. Head coach Dan Mullen and selected players will be available for postgame interview purposes following each game on the second floor of the Seal M-Club Center at the south end of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. MSU players may not be approached on the field following games for interviews.

Mullen's portion of the press conference may also be viewed in the press box on the MSU TV Center channel on press box television monitors.

The visiting head coach and players will be available following the cooling-off period in the interview room adjacent to the visitor's locker room. This media opportunity will be coordinated by the visiting SID and Mississippi State Media Relations personnel.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Robert M. Hartley Press Box, named for longtime Mississippi State Sports Information Director and administrator Bob Hartley, is located on the 200 level of the west side of Davis Wade Stadium. To access the press box, enter Gate 5 on the west side of Davis Wade Stadium and take the media elevator to Level 2.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

MSU provides ample work space in the 144-seat Bob Hartley Press Box for members of the print media as well as booth accommodations for radio networks and originating telecasts. Post-game work space is available in both the open-air seating area of the press box or in the climate-controlled work area adjacent to the seating area.

STATISTICS

Complete individual and team stats, play-by-play and post-game quotes will be available to the media following each game. One hour prior to kickoff, media packets containing a game program, flipcard, updated stats and game notes will be distributed in the media working area.

An internal public address system will provide updated notes and information during the game. A post-game fax service is also available upon request.

TELEPHONES

A limited number of telephones are available for media use in the press box on a first-come, first-served basis. Private lines are recommended for those working under tight deadlines and may be ordered through BellSouth (1-800-622-0644 [out of state] or 662-557-6000 [in Mississippi]). Instruct BellSouth personnel to install the line in the press box at Scott Field, B.S. Hood Drive, on the MSU campus.

Please notify the Media Relations office when ordering private lines so that phone line installation and seat location can be coordinated.

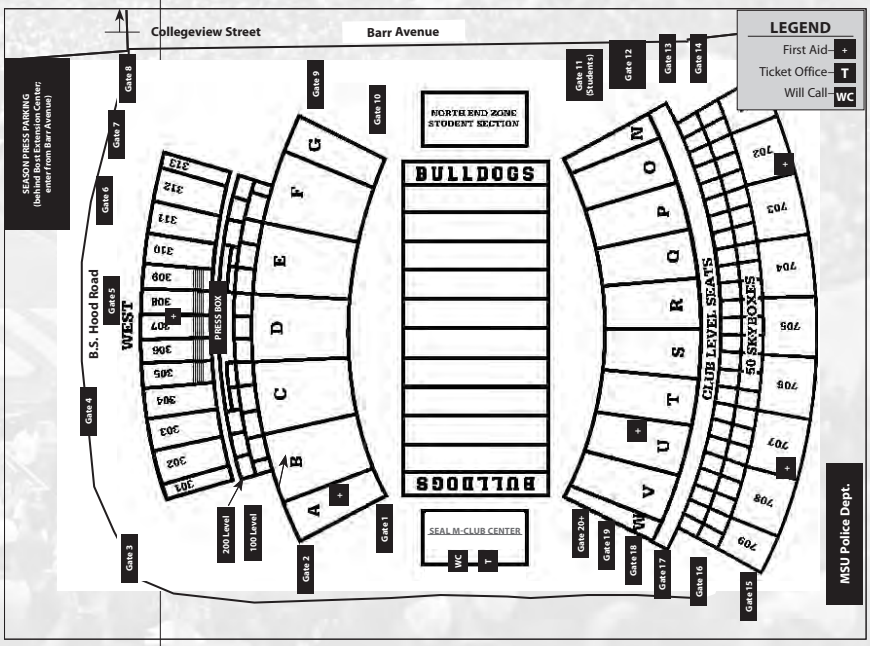
ETHERNET/WIRELESS CONNECTIVITY

A limited number of Ethernet connections are available for photographic transmission in the climate-controlled area of the press box. These connections are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis to photographers requesting the service. All Ethernet lines are NOT reserved by any media entity and may be shared when not in use.

The press box is equipped with wireless internet access. To gain access to the wireless internet, media members must have a wireless card on their computer.

MEALS

A pre-game meal is served in the Robert M. Hartley Press Box beginning approximately three hours before kickoff with a light snack available in the press box at halftime. A stub on your credential, or a season pass is required for the pre-game meal.



UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Mark Keenum

University President

Mississippi State, 1984

Dr. Mark Everett Keenum became Mississippi State's 19th president Jan. 5, 2009, following a distinguished public service career.

After completing his bachelor's and master's degrees in agricultural economics at Mississippi State, Dr. Keenum joined the university faculty in 1984 as a marketing specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service. Two years later, he accepted a position as a research associate with the Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry Experiment Station at MSU.

He continued his education at the university, in 1988 receiving a doctorate in agricultural economics, and he joined the faculty of that department as an assistant professor/economist. During his professional tenure at Mississippi State, his primary research and extension work focused on the marketing and economics of aquaculture, specialty crops and forestry. He continued his faculty ties at the university 1997-2006 as an adjunct professor, teaching an annual course on agricultural legislative policy.

Prior to being named president of Mississippi State in November 2008, Dr. Keenum served as Under Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture for two years, where he provided leadership and oversight for the Farm Service Agency, the Risk Management Agency and the Foreign Agricultural Service. The mission area, comprised of the three agencies, had a total operating budget of $1.7 billion and approximately $40 billion in program authority. The three agencies employed more than 16,500 people at more than 2,300 offices nationwide and 98 locations around the globe.

In 1989, Dr. Keenum joined the Washington, D.C., staff of U.S. Senator Thad Cochran as Legislative Assistant for Agriculture and Natural Resources. As Sen. Cochran's adviser on agricultural affairs, he worked on numerous issues important to U.S. agriculture, including the 1990, 1996, and 2002 Farm Bills. From 1996-2006, he served as Chief of Staff for Sen. Cochran. In this role, Dr. Keenum was the chief adviser to the senator on political, legislative and appropriations issues. He also was responsible for managing all administrative and legislative functions of Sen. Cochran's Washington, D.C., office and three Mississippi offices, including direct oversight of the U.S. Senate Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry and the U.S. Senate Committee on Appropriations.

Dr. Keenum and his wife Rhonda have four children.

Scott Stricklin

Director of Athletics

Mississippi State, 1992

Using more than two decades of intercollegiate experience in communications, fundraising and marketing, Scott Stricklin has continued to build upon the momentum of the Mississippi State fan base over his first year as the director of athletics.

From his first day on the job as Mississippi State's Athletic Director in May 2010, Stricklin, using the department's foundations of focusing on student-athletes, possessing great integrity and aggressively promoting Mississippi State University, has overseen a year in which the Bulldogs enjoyed both on and off the field successes unparalleled in more than a decade.

The 2010 Bulldog football team compiled nine victories including the second-consecutive Egg Bowl win and a rout over Michigan in the Gator Bowl. The men's tennis team claimed the Southeastern Conference Western Division title and posted its highest-ever team grade point average in the fall.

Bulldog student-athletes again excelled in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, with all 16 sports far exceeding the minimum standard and 15 of 16 squads improving upon their previous year total.

Stricklin has overseen planning for new facilities including the Mize Pavillion at Humphrey Coliseum, a new football practice and training complex as well as future expansion and upgrades to Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field. The Bulldog Club has solicited gifts totaling more than $20 million for the football facility, including a record $12 million gift from the Seal Family.

Recently, The Bulldog Club announced the most ambitious fundraising drive in the athletic department's history – an initiative called "Today, Tomorrow, Forever. –to generate funding for new construction and upgrades to existing facilities.

In 2010, Mississippi State fans packed Davis Wade Stadium for every game, buying all available season tickets for the first time in school history. A record 384,995 Bulldog supporters turned out in 2010, and the school has created a waiting list that has topped 1,000 requests for season ticket purchases.

A 1992 graduate of Mississippi State, the Jackson, Miss., native's resume is highlighted by 23 years of experience on the collegiate level in various capacities at five different universities. The last two years, he's faithfully served as Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at his alma mater, overseeing fundraising, football and men's basketball scheduling, managing MSU's all-sport agreement with Adidas, facility planning, and serving as the administrative sport liaison for men's basketball and softball.

Prior to graduating from State, Stricklin's stint in the MSU media relations office included three seasons (1990-92) as the media contact for the nationally-renown baseball program. Upon graduation, he was named assistant media relations director.

He continued his climb up the ladder of success with stops at Auburn, Tulane and Baylor. In 2003, Stricklin returned to the Southeastern Conference at Kentucky and spent five seasons as the Associate AD for Media Relations, where he oversaw the day-to-day publicity of the tradition-rich Wildcat basketball program. It was his last stop before returning to Mississippi State in the spring of 2008.

Stricklin, 41, is married to the former Anne Howell, the youngest daughter of Basketball Hall of Fame member Bailey Howell. The couple has two daughters, Abby and Sophie.

Head Coach Dan Mullen

Dan Mullen

Head Coach • Third Season • 14-11 (.560)

Ursinus, 1994

In just over two full seasons, Dan Mullen has revitalized and reenergized the Mississippi State fan base. From the moment of his introduction on December 10, 2008 as the 32nd head coach in school history, supporters have turned out in record numbers and capacity crowds.

Mississippi State fans have sold out a school-record 10 consecutive home games, including all seven at Davis Wade Stadium this fall. Each of the last two years have seen the school's attendance record broken. In fact, 12 of the school's top 20 crowds have occurred in the last two years.

Mullen was widely regarded as one of the top young minds in college football when he arrived at Mississippi State, and he brought not only an impressive offensive resume and a list of NFL-developed quarterbacks but also an energy and passion for the college game.

Improvement wasn't limited to fan enthusiasm, as Mullen ignited the Bulldogs to a nine-win season in just his second year. State won six games in a row in the middle of the season, and finished among the top 10 in school history in the following categories - passing yardage, completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rushing attempts, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, total plays, total offensive yards, per-game offense and first downs. The defense also amassed the 10th highest sack total in school annals.

The 2010 Bulldogs closed out the season with nine victories including posting the largest margin of victory in a bowl game in school history. The resounding 52-14 Gator Bowl win over Michigan capped a truly remarkable year.

In 2009, despite facing the nation's toughest schedule. State's rushing attack, led by first-team all-Southeastern Conference selection Anthony Dixon, finished ninth nationally with a 227.6 rushing yard average per game. State averaged 371.9 yards of total offense per game, the eighth highest total in school history and the most since 2000.

Mullen's first season concluded with a rousing 41-27 victory over MSU's in-state rival, which brought the Golden Egg back to Starkville. He became the only the third Mississippi State coach to win his Egg Bowl debut since 1939, joining Allyn McKeen and Jackie Sherrill. The Bulldogs posted a 5-7 overall record in 2009, including three road victories.

During the previous four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Florida, Mullen molded a Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Maxwell Award winning quarterback, along with a Rimington Trophy finalist and a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist.

In 2008 alone, Mullen's offensive attack ranked third nationally in scoring – averaging better than 45 points per game as the Gators scored at least 30 points in 12 of 13 games. The 587 points scored eclipsed the previous University of Florida mark, set in 1996.

Florida rushed for a new-school record 41 touchdowns that season and UF's 80 rushing touchdowns over the two seasons ranked second nationally Overall, Florida's rushing yardage of 2,987 this year ranks ninth nationally and is the third-highest total in school history.

Seven offensive players were recognized as All-Southeastern Conference selections following the season in which Florida claimed its second SEC Championship and a chance to play for its second national championship in three seasons.

The Gator offense ranked first in the SEC in scoring offense and total offense for a second-straight season in 2008, averaging 45.2 points and 442.4 yards per game. Under Mullen's tutelage in 2007, UF averaged 42.5 points and 457.2 yards.

In 2007, Mullen directed the Gator offense to the third-highest point total ever by a UF unit and the top single-season marks for rushing touchdowns and third-down conversion percentage. Florida's offense scored 75 touchdowns during the season most in the SEC.

Mullen orchestrated a UF attack that was the only one in the nation to have rushed for a touchdown and passed for a touchdown in every game during the season. He also helped UF score on 83 of 152 drives in 2007 for a league-best 54.6 percent, marking the best number since the stat was tracked by the SEC in 2000. Florida also averaged 7.0 yards per play last year, the fourth-best total in the nation and the Gators averaged 5.3 yards per rush, the second-best number in school history.

In 2007, he helped coach sophomore quarterback Tim Tebow into a Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Davey O'Brien award winner, 78th Sullivan Award winner and AP first-team All- American among other honors.

He also tutored six offensive players to the All-SEC team: Tebow, Percy Harvin, Cornelius Ingram, Brandon James, Jim Tartt and Drew Miller.

Mullen played an integral role in Florida's 2006 national championship, overseeing an offense that averaged 29.7 points and 396.1 yards per game. In the BCS National Championship Game, he engineered an attack that produced 41 points against a top-ranked Ohio State squad that was limiting opponents to less than 11 points per game on the year. Under Mullen's tutelage, quarterback Chris Leak opened the contest by going 9-for-9 for 99 yards and a touchdown en route to earning Offensive MVP honors.

The 2006 Gator offense posted 76 plays of 20 yards or more, 19 of which went for touchdowns. Florida passed for 29 touchdowns in 2006, while Leak ranked among the national leaders with 23 scoring tosses. Tebow matched UF's single-season record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with eight scores, and his 5.3 average yards per carry were second nationally among signal callers. Six different players averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry.

In 2005, Chad Jackson played his way to Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after matching the UF single-season record with 88 receptions, a figure that led the SEC and finished sixth nationally. Center Mike Degory was also named a finalist for the Rimington Trophy, given annually to the nation's top center, during that campaign. Both earned first-team All-SEC honors under Mullen's tutelage.

Mullen went to Florida from Utah with head coach Urban Meyer, with whom he had spent 10 seasons. While the quarterbacks coach at Utah, Mullen developed Alex Smith – the first overall selection in the 2005 NFL Draft – from a pocket passer into an efficient executor of the spread, making him one of the most versatile threats in college football. Smith took over the starting job three games into Mullen's tenure, passing for 2,247 yards and running for 452 to finish second in the Mountain West in total offense in 2003.

The 2004 campaign saw Smith earn National Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated, while also becoming Utah's first-ever Heisman Trophy finalist and garnering final consideration for the Davey O'Brien and Walter Camp National Player of the Year Awards. Smith passed for 2,952 yards and 32 touchdowns and ran for 631 yards and 10 scores on the year, ranking second in the nation with a 176.5 efficiency rating and leading the Utes to a perfect 12-0 season and a Fiesta Bowl championship. As a team, Utah finished the 2004 season third in the nation in scoring offense (45.3) and total offense (499.8).

Prior to his stint at Utah, Mullen served as quarterbacks' coach at Bowling Green for two seasons, putting up 6,627 yards of total offense and scoring 81 touchdowns during that span. In 2002, quarterback Josh Harris threw for 2,425 yards, ran for 737 yards and completed the campaign as the nation's third-leading scorer.

Mullen spent the two years before his Bowling Green stint as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame and assisted with Syracuse's 1998 BIG EAST championship and Orange Bowl run.

A two-year starter at tight end for Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pa., Mullen earned first-team All-Centennial Conference honors as a senior. He is married to the former Megan West, and the couple has a one-year-old son, Canon.

Les Koenning

Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks • Third Season

Texas, 1981

Head football coach Dan Mullen spent the first 14 years of his career coaching on the offensive side of the ball and four at Florida as offensive coordinator. When he began his search for an offensive coordinator, Mullen found Les Koenning - a coach with more than 25 years of experience and a wealth of knowledge not only about developing quarterbacks but also about the spread offense.

Koenning is not only experienced coaching on the collegiate level in general, he gained some of that knowledge during a previous stop at Mississippi State. His second full-time position in the college ranks was a four-year stint in Starkville from 1986-89.

In just two short years, Koenning's offense has nearly doubled the average number of points scored (15.2 ppg in 2008; 29.0 in 2010), and has developed the Bulldog offense into consistently one of the top rushing teams in the country. In 2009, State averaged 227.6 yards per game on the ground and in 2010 the Bulldogs are running for 214.8. The passing game also improved by 35 yards per game last season.

Last season, the Bulldog offense finished among the top 10 in school history in the following categories - passing yardage, completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rushing attempts, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, total plays, total offensive yards, per-game offense and first downs.

Koenning came to Mississippi State from South Alabama, where he spent the past season as the offensive coordinator for the newly developed Jaguar program. South Alabama will begin playing intercollegiate football this season.

Prior to his one-year stay at South Alabama, Koenning, 49, spent five years on the Texas A&M staff, serving as offensive coordinator and working with the quarterbacks. He has spent the last 10 years of his career coordinating offenses and calling plays, starting in 1998 at Duke before stops at Houston (1999), TCU (2000) and Alabama (2001-03).

A native of Houston, Koenning began his career with graduate assistantships at Texas and Alabama before being named wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette in 1985.

Koenning then served as running backs and wide receivers coach for Rockey Felker at Mississippi State from 1986-89. He moved to Rice as wide receivers coach from 1990-93 before taking the same position at Texas A&M. Koenning gained a year of experience in the NFL with the Miami Dolphins during the 1997 season before returning to his college roots.

A 1981 graduate of Texas with a degree in Health and Physical Education, Koenning added a master's degree in sports management two years later. He and his wife, Lisa, have two children, Les and Lana.

Chris Wilson

Defensive Coordinator / Defensive Line • Second Season

Oklahoma, 1992

It didn't take long for Chris Wilson to impose his style onto the Mississippi State front seven. The Bulldog defense allowed nearly 300 fewer yards on the ground and accumulated 29 more tackles behind the line of scrimmage than it did the year prior to Wilson's arrival. Wilson's defensive front ranked among the nation's leaders in both rushing defense (15th) and tackles for loss (17th), improving from ranks of 62nd and 89th the year before.

This year, Wilson takes over as the defensive coordinator for a Bulldog squad looking to build upon the great successes a year ago.

Last season, Wilson served as the Mississippi State defensive line coach and co-defensive coordinator after spending the previous five years tutoring defensive linemen at his alma mater, Oklahoma. Wilson is a veteran of 15 years coaching at the collegiate level with stints at Indiana State, Northern Illinois, Illinois State, Colorado and Oklahoma.

Wilson coached defensive ends at Oklahoma and, for the last three years of his tenure, also served as special teams coordinator. In 2009, Wilson helped mentor a defensive front that finished eighth nationally against the run, allowing only 92 yards per game, and posted the sixth-most sacks in the country. The Sooner defense also finished the season ranked eighth in total defense and seventh in points allowed.

Under Wilson's tutelage, defensive end Jeremy Beal had been named All-Big 12 in consecutive seasons, and led the Sooner defense in tackles for loss and sacks both as a sophomore and as a junior.

In 2007, Wilson helped guide the OU defense to a conference-leading 32 sacks, 15 of which came from his ends. Sophomore Auston English ranked 15th nationally in sacks despite missing three games and was named first team All-Big 12. The year prior, his ends logged 25.5 tackles for loss including 10 sacks.

In 2005, with his top returning starter (Larry Birdine) lost in August and one of his budding stars (John Williams) sidelined in the opener by injuries, he still coached the defensive ends to a brilliant season. C.J. Ah You was named Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year and MVP of the Holiday Bowl, and Calvin Thibodeaux captured postseason honors while leading the team with 10 sacks.

During his tenure in Boulder, Colorado captured the Big 12 North titles three times, and the Buffalos ranked 15thnationally and second in the Big 12 with 33 sacks in 2004.

Wilson also coached on the Illinois State squad that captured the Gateway Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals in 1999. That season marked the only time that the Redbirds accomplished those feats.

Prior to his two-year stint at Illinois state, Wilson also served as linebackers coach at Indiana State in 1997, defensive coordinator at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in 1996, linebackers coach at Northern Illinois in 1995 and at Indiana State in 1994.

Geoff Collins

Co-Defensive Coordinator / Linebackers • First Season

Western Carolina, 1994

When head coach Dan Mullen had a spot to fill on his defensive staff, he set his sights on one of the rising stars on that side of the ball. Geoff Collins comes to Mississippi State this season as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach after putting together a remarkable resume during stints at Florida International and UCF.

Last season, Collins' defensive unit led the Sun Belt in total defense, scoring defense, pass efficiency defense and turnover margin; all a remarkable accomplishment for a group that finished 119th nationally in total defense and 111th in scoring defense in 2009. The Panthers' sack totals nearly doubled, and the pass defense improved from 108th nationally to 32nd in 2010. For his efforts, Collins was a finalist for the Broyles Award - given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

Collins made the move to FIU after a pair of seasons as the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at UCF. In his first season in Orlando, Collins helped UCF's defense rank second in Conference USA in total and scoring defense. Before joining the Knights' staff, Collins spent a year as the director of player personnel at Alabama. The previous year at Georgia Tech, Collins' efforts led to the Yellow Jackets best recruiting class in their storied history.

In 2002 Collins became the defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach at his alma mater, Western Carolina, and inherited one of the worst defensive units statistically in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision. In 2003, under Collins' direction, the Catamount defense emerged as one of the best in the nation.

In 2005, the Western Carolina defense was ranked No. 1 nationally in pass defense along with being ranked 18th nationally in total defense. Collins' unit also finished ranked first in the Southern Conference in total defense and pass defense along with several other defensive categories.

Prior to returning to Western Carolina, Collins spent three years with current UCF head coach George O'Leary at Georgia Tech. Collins began his career on the Flats as the defensive GA working with the linebackers in 1999 and with the defensive backs in 2000.

Before his days at Georgia Tech, Collins spent two years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers and secondary coach at Albright College in Reading, Pa. In 1997, the NCAA Division III program boasted the leading defense in its conference and ranked in the top 10 nationally in all defensive categories.

In 1996, Collins served as an assistant coach at Fordham, working with the outside linebackers while also serving as the junior varsity defensive coordinator. He also spent one season (1995) as an assistant coach at Franklin (N.C.) High School while student teaching in the Macon County Public Schools.

During his playing days at Western Carolina, Collins tallied 194 tackles as an outside linebacker and defensive back from 1989-92. He was the team's fifth leading tackler as a junior with 68, while registering six tackles for losses. As a senior, he helped Western to a 7-4 record, logging 62 total takedowns and five tackles for losses. He began his coaching career as a student assistant on the Western Carolina staff in 1993.

A native of Conyers, Ga., who attended Rockdale County High School, Collins earned a bachelor's degree from Western Carolina in Sport Management and Exercise Science in 1994 and then completed the Education curriculum in 1995. He did postgraduate work in psychology at Fordham University and Georgia Tech.

JOHN HEVESY

Running Game Coordinator / Offensive Line • Third Season

Maine, 1994

No one can argue with the results put up by John Hevesy's group during his first two years as the Bulldogs' run game coordinator and offensive line coach. In 2009, the line paved the way as the offense led the SEC and finished ninth nationally in rushing, averaging better than 225 yards per game. Last season, State rushed for 214.8 yards per game and increased the total offense numbers. The Bulldogs eclipsed the 200-yard rushing mark eight times last year, the most by any Mississippi State team since 1982.

In his first two seasons, Hevesy tutored left tackle Derek Sherrod, an all-American selection and a first round draft choice in the 2011 NFL draft.

Hevesy has worked with head coach Dan Mullen for a decade, and came to Mississippi State after four years as a member of the University of Florida coaching staff, where he spent time working with both the tight ends and the offensive line. Hevesy has coached in four BCS bowls, including Florida's 2006 and 2008 National Championship Game victories. In 2008, he coached Florida tight end Aaron Hernandez as the sophomore caught 34 passes for 381 yards and five scores. Hevesy also assisted with a Florida offensive line which allowed only 16 sacks in 14 games and paved the way for a rushing attack that averaged more than 231 yards per game.

In 2007, he tutored the UF tight ends' duo of Cornelius Ingram and Hernandez to a combined 43 receptions and 659 yards receiving. Ingram's seven touchdowns receiving matched Andre Caldwell's team leading total and his 14.9 years per reception were the most of any Gator who had double digit catches. That season, the Gator offensive line surrendered just 13 sacks in 13 games, tying for the secondlowest total in the SEC and fifth nationally.

Despite entering the 2006 season with one player having started a game at his opening-day position, the UF offensive line allowed only 23 sacks on the year, and yielded one or less seven times during the campaign. Hevesy has also shown a penchant for molding individual talents on the interior of the Gators' line. Starting centers Mike Degory and Steve Rissler earned first-team All-SEC honors as seniors, and Drew Miller earned honorable mention All-SEC.

As the offensive line coach at Utah in 2004, Hevesy directed the front line for one of the most prolific offenses in the country, as the Utes ranked third nationally in scoring, total offense and passing efficiency. Behind the blocking of Hevesy's group, Utah scored on 62-of-67 trips to the red zone that year.

Prior to his arrival in Salt Lake City, Hevesy coached the tackles and tight ends at Bowling Green from 2001-02. In his first year on campus, the line allowed 50 percent fewer sacks than the year before, while the 2002 unit blocked for skill players that amassed more than 5,000 yards of total offense.

During a three-year stint at Brown, Hevesy coached an offensive line that blocked for 13 school records and saw three of its members earn multiple All-Ivy selections.

A three-year starter on the offensive line at the University of Maine from 1991-93, Hevesy is married to the former Kelli Rogers. The couple has three children, Jack, Taylor and Madison.

Tony Hughes

Recruiting Coordinator / Safeties • Third Season

Southern Mississippi, 1980

A Mississippi native with a wealth of experience coaching in his home state, Tony Hughes coaches safeties in the defensive backfield and also coordinates the Bulldogs' recruiting efforts.

Last season, Hughes tutored Nickoe Whitley to Freshman All-SEC honors and Charles Mitchell continues to be one of the best players in the Southeastern Conference.

Hughes came to Mississippi State after spending one season at Southern Mississippi, where he coached the secondary. Prior to that stop, Hughes coached for three seasons at Ole Miss. Named one of the top 25 college football recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in the spring of 2006, Hughes' first two years were spent tutoring the defensive backs and his final season in Oxford was spent working with the tight ends.

Prior to a two-season tenure at Louisiana Tech, Hughes had spent the previous 10 years on the coaching staff at Hinds Community College in Raymond, Miss., where he served as the defensive coordinator for one year and the secondary coaching during his first nine seasons. At Hinds, Hughes coached eight players that later went on to the National Football League, including former Mississippi State standout Fred Smoot.

Before working at Hinds, Hughes first college stop as a full-time collegiate coach was a two-year stay at West Alabama where he was the secondary coach in 1992 and 1993. Hughes coached for seven years in the Mississippi high school ranks, serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive backs coach at Hattiesburg High School in 1988-1991. Hughes also spent two seasons as the defensive secondary coach and boys track coach at South Natchez High School in 1986 and 1987. His first high school coaching job came at Philadelphia High School in 1985.

After serving in the United States Marine Corps from 1981 to 1984 and receiving an honorable discharge, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Mississippi in 1984, working with the defensive backs.

Hughes, who played football and ran track at Forest High School (1974-76) and played defensive back at St. Paul's College (1976-77), was a defensive back for Southern Miss in 1977 and 1978. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in sociology from Southern Mississippi in 1980. He is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as a member of the Mississippi FCA State Board of Directors in 1999, president of the Mississippi FCA Coaches Council in 1998, and vice-president of the Mississippi FCA Coaches Council in 1997.

Hughes is married to the former Marion McCaleb of Meridian, Miss., and the couple has two sons, Jamison and Jay.

Greg Knox

Running Backs • Third Season

Northeastern State, 1986

When he walked into the doors at Mississippi State, Greg Knox found one of the best running backs in school history waiting for him. All Knox did was help Anthony Dixon reach even greater heights than imaginable. During his senior season, Knox mentored Dixon as he rushed for a school record 1,391 yards and 12 touchdowns. But it wasn't only the All-SEC tailback that thrived under Knox's guidance, as the running backs combined for more than 2,000 yards as the Bulldogs led the conference in rushing yards.

Last season may have been an even greater coaching feat. Without a proven commodity like Dixon, the Bulldog offense used several different backs to accomplish nearly the same thing. Newcomer Vick Ballard burst onto the scene and broke the 58-year-old school record for rushing touchdowns in a single season.

Prior to his arrival at Mississippi State, Knox had spent the last 14 seasons coaching in the Southeastern Conference and nearly 20 years coaching offense on the collegiate level. He came to Mississippi State following a 14-year stretch as head coach Tommy Tuberville's wide receivers coach at both Ole Miss and Auburn. Knox was also the recruiting coordinator for the last 13 of those seasons.

A veteran of nine postseason bowl games, Knox helped lead the Auburn offense to the top of the SEC in scoring in both 2004 and 2005. He has tutored six players selected in the National Football League draft.

He helped Ole Miss reach the 1997 Motor City Bowl, and was part of Auburn coaching staffs that finished football seasons in the 2001 Citrus and Peach Bowls, 2003 Capital One and Music City Bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl, the '06 Capital One Bowl, and the 2007 Cotton and Chick-fil-A postseason classics.

Of the six players that he has had selected in the NFL draft, three came in just two years while at Auburn (Courtney Taylor in 2007, and Ben Obomanu and Devin Aromashodu in 2006). Knox helped Taylor become the school's all-time leader in receptions, and Obomanu finish second in touchdown receptions.

After earning his bachelor's degree while playing quarterback for Northeastern State, Knox began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1988. Knox spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Northeastern State and two at Texas Christian before being named to the staff at Stephen F. Austin in 1992.

In three seasons on the Lumberjacks staff as the receivers and special teams coach, Knox helped a program that had won only three games in the previous two seasons to the 1993 I-AA playoffs and a top-25 ranking the following season.

A native of Rosebud, Texas, Knox is married to the former Toralyn Foster, and the couple has three sons, Gregory, Torian and Tyson.

Angelo Mirando

Wide Receivers • First Season

Case-Western Reserve, 2008

Mississippi State head coach Dan Mullen didn't have to go very far to find a perfect addition to the staff, as he promoted Angelo Mirando to coach the wide receivers after Mark Hudspeth took the head coaching job at Louisiana-Lafayette.

Mirando, who played quarterback at Case-Western Reserve before graduating in 2008, spent the previous three seasons, one at Florida and two at Mississippi State, serving as offensive graduate assistant under Coach Mullen. He worked with the quarterbacks in 2009 before helping with the receivers in 2010.

Mirando coached the wide receivers during bowl practices leading up to Mississippi State's 52-14 victory over Michigan in the Progressive Gator Bowl. The Bulldog wideouts, playing without injured Chad Bumphis and Leon Berry, combined for 14 receptions for 191 yards and three scores.

"Angelo has a great knowledge of our offensive system and what we're trying to accomplish," Mullen said. "He did a tremendous job during the bowl preparation and I'm confident he'll do a great job working with our receivers full-time."

Mirando began his coaching career as a quality-control graduate assistant at the University of Florida in 2008.

Scott Sallach

Tight Ends • Third Season

Ursinus, 1994

Head coach Dan Mullen brought in his old college teammate, Scott Sallach, to coach tight ends for the Bulldogs' offense after Sallach spent the previous 11 seasons in the Ivy League.

In 2009, Sallach helped tight end Marcus Green learn the spread attack and in his first season Green finished second on the team with 27 receptions for 306 yards. Last season, Green was injured early in the year so Sallach had to lean on a less-experienced cast. Brandon Henderson had his most productive season, and Kendrick Cook, Thomas Webb and younger players each stepped up on gameday and in pracitce.

A veteran of more than 15 years coaching on the collegiate level, Sallach came to Mississippi State after a six-year stint at Princeton, where he coached wide receivers and quarterbacks.

He added the title of passing game coordinator prior to the 2008 season.During his time at the Ivy League school, he oversaw two of the top four career passing yardage totals and two of the best five season passing yardage efforts as passing game coordinator. He coached two of the top seven all-time receivers at Princeton, and in his six seasons coached nine all-league performers, one of whom gained all-America recognition.

Before his stop at Princeton, Sallach worked at Dartmouth College for five seasons (1998-2002), Monmouth for three seasons (1995-97) and Hamilton College for one season (1994). At Dartmouth, he coached the wide receivers while assisting with the special teams, specializing in kickoffs and kickoff returns.

During his tenure with the Big Green, the school set school records for completions in a game and season, and passing yards in a season. His instruction assisted a Dartmouth receiver become the institution's all-time top pass-catcher for a single game, a season and a career. Sallach also tutored the school's single season leader in kickoff returns. While at Dartmouth, Sallach's receivers posted five of the school's best six single-game receiving totals, the top two single-game and career receivers, and two of the top three career receiving yardage leaders.

Sallach who, along with Mullen graduated from Ursinus College in 1994 with a bachelor of science degree in exercise and sport science, took his first football job at Hamilton College in 1994 as an assistant coach. After one season there, he spent three years at Monmouth as an assistant coach. In both positions, Sallach was responsible for coaching wide receivers.

Melvin Smith

Cornerbacks / Nickels • Fifth Season

Millsaps, 1982

Mississippi State head coach Dan Mullen retained Melvin Smith from the previous coaching staff, and Smith has proven to be a good fit with the new group. A coach with deep Mississippi connections and proven recruiting ability, Smith coached the cornerbacks in 2007-08 after coaching the entire secondary in 2006.

In 2009, Smith mentored a young group, yet the Mississippi State secondary led the SEC with 17 interceptions on the season. Led by then-freshman Corey Broomfield's six picks, the corners improved as the season progressed. For his efforts, Broomfield was named Freshman All-Southeastern Conference.

Smith returned to Mississippi State in 2006 after spending time at both Alabama and Texas A&M. In just his second season back on the campus, Smith helped the MSU pass defense rank fourth in the SEC, allowing just 182.2 yards per game, sixth in pass efficiency defense (114.8). The Bulldogs improved their interception total from 12 to 15.

For Smith, returning to MSU was a homecoming, not only to the university but to the state of Mississippi. A native of Taylorsville, Miss., who grew up in Magee, Miss., Smith was an assistant football coach previously at State for seven years (1995-2001), helping guide the Bulldogs through arguably the greatest period in the school's football history.

The 25-year coaching veteran has spent 21 of those years working in the Magnolia State. Smith came back to Mississippi State following three seasons at Texas A&M, where he coached the safeties. During his tenure in College Station, Texas, Smith helped the Aggies to a 7-4 regular season record in 2004 and a berth in the 2005 Cotton Bowl.

Prior to his stint at A&M and immediately following his seven years at MSU, Smith coached the safeties at Alabama in 2002. That Crimson Tide team posted a 10-3 regular season record that year. In 2000, three of his four defensive backfield starters signed professional football contracts. That secondary intercepted 19 passes, the second-most in school history. Smith has also coached on the collegiate level in Mississippi at Ole Miss (1992-94) and Delta State (1990-91). He began his coaching career on the high school level at Greenwood (Miss.) from 1982-89.

Smith holds a master's degree in administration from Delta State (1992) and a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Millsaps College. Smith is married to the former Sheilah McLemore and the couple has four children, sons Robert and Melvin, and daughters Deondra and Ashlee.

Matt Balis

Strength and Conditioning • Third Season

Northern Illinois, 1996

Since the moment he was hired, head coach Dan Mullen has often referred to Matt Balis as the most important part of his program. The head coach has also called his head strength and conditioning coach "the best strength coach in the country," and now he may have proof. Last sesaon, Balis was named one of three finalists for the FootballScoop Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year Award.

Balis came to Starkville from the University of Virginia, where he served two years as the strength and conditioning coach for the Cavaliers football program.

Prior to his stint in Charlottesville, Balis previously served as the assistant director of strength and conditioning at Florida in 2005 and 2006. The Florida football team completed the 2006 season with a 13-1 record and won the Southeastern Conference Championship and the BCS National Championship.

Before joining the staff at Florida, Balis worked two years as the director of strength and conditioning for the entire 16-sport program in 2004. Balis was directly in charge of designing and implementing strength and conditioning programs for football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball and volleyball. The football team completed the 2004 season with an overall record of 12-0 and won the Fiesta Bowl. He served as assistant strength coach at Utah in 2003.

Balis was also an assistant strength coach at Houston for two years and before moving to the college level, he was an assistant football coach and worked in the area of strength and conditioning at Wheaton (Ill.) Warrenville South High School for two years and at Wheaton (Ill.) North High School for three years. He also taught physical education at the elementary school level during that five-year period.

Balis earned a bachelor's degree in education from Northern Illinois University in 1996 and a master's degree in educational leadership and administration from Aurora University in 2001. Balis is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCC), and is a certified strength and conditioning specialist, and a certified strength and conditioning coach.

Rockey Felker

Director of Player Personnel / High School Relations • 10th Season
Mississippi State, 1975

As he begins his fifth different decade with an association to Mississippi State football, Rockey Felker is living proof that persistence, loyalty and hard work pay dividends. Felker played at Mississippi State in the 1970s, served as head coach from 1986-1990 and returned to the Bulldog staff in 2004.

Head coach Dan Mullen has directed Felker with a new charge, serving as Director of Player Personnel and High School Relations. It is Felker's second stint in an off field role, having served as the staff's coordinator of football operations for both Jackie Sherrill and Sylvester Croom. For the previous two seasons, Felker tutored the Bulldog running backs, helping guide Anthony Dixon to nearly 2,000 yards in those two years.

Felker was the nation's youngest collegiate head coach – at age 33 – when he was selected to guide the MSU football program in 1986. He directed the Bulldogs to a 6-5 mark in his first season at the helm, the school's first winning season in five years. Felker's team won road games at Syracuse and at defending SEC champion Tennessee during that '86 season, and he became the first State head football coach to post a winning record in his initial season since the legendary Darrell Royal in 1954. Felker served as State's head football coach through the 1990 season.

He came back to State as the school's head coach following 11 years as an assistant coach on the collegiate level. Immediately prior to rejoining the MSU program, he was an assistant at Alabama from 1983-85. He served as the Crimson Tide receivers coach in 1983-84 and the offensive backfield coach in '85. During his stay in Tuscaloosa, he helped Alabama to postseason bowl wins over SMU ('83 Sun Bowl) and Southern California ('85 Aloha Bowl).

Felker began his coaching career at Mississippi State following his playing days, working for head coach Bob Tyler. He worked with the junior varsity (1975) and the varsity receivers, quarterbacks and running backs (1976-78).

A native of Jackson, Tenn., Felker was a five-sport letterman at Brownsville (Tenn.) High School, earning all-state honors in football under the tutelage of his father, Edwin "Babe" Felker, an assistant coach at the school.

Felker's first association with Mississippi State came in December 1970, when he signed a football scholarship to play quarterback for the Bulldogs. After playing one year of freshman ball, he was under center for most of the next three seasons. In 1974, Felker led MSU to a 9-3 overall record, leading the SEC in total offense and directing the Bulldogs to a win over North Carolina in the Sun Bowl. He was named the Nashville Banner SEC Player of the Year and the Birmingham Post-Herald Outstanding Senior Player for his stellar final season.

Following his five years as head coach at MSU, Felker worked nine more years as an assistant coach. He had two terms as the offensive coordinator at the University of Tulsa (1991-92 and 1997-99) and spent four years on the coaching staff at the University of Arkansas, working three seasons (1994-96) as the school's offensive coordinator.

While at Arkansas, Felker coached the running backs in 1993, then tutored the quarterbacks the next three years. He helped the Razorbacks win the SEC Western Division title and earn a berth in the '95 SEC Championship Game. The Razorbacks concluded that season with a bid to the Carquest Bowl in Miami, Fla.

Felker is married to the former Susan Tingle and they have three sons, Jay, David and Stephen.

Jon Clark

Assistant AD / Football Operations • Second Season
Bowling Green, 2002

Jon Clark, a veteran of 10 years in work surrounding football operations, came to Mississippi State after five seasons at the University of Florida, where he served as the Director of Football Administration.

Clark oversees the administrative operations of the football department, including daily scheduling, budget, travel, office staff and other duties.

Prior to his stint at Florida, Clark served in the same role at the University of Utah in 2002 and 2003. He first worked with Florida head football coach Urban Meyer at Bowling Green, where Clark was an undergraduate student manager prior to earning his Bachelor's Degree in Secondary Education in May of 2002. After completing his education, Clark accepted a position as an administrative graduate assistant at BGSU.

1937 ORANGE BOWL

Mississippi State 12
Duquesne 13

January 1, 1937 - Orange Bowl - Miami, Florida

A desperation 72-yard touchdown pass from tailback Boyd Brumbaugh to end Ernie Hefferlie spelled an end to Mississippi State's upset hopes as Duquesne edged the Bulldogs 13-12 in the first decade of Orange Bowl history.

With time running out, coach John "Little Clipper" Smith's Dukes went to the air. His team had thrown six straight incompletions before Brumbaugh heaved one after fading back all the way to his own 20-yard line. Hefferlie cradled it in at the State 25 and scored untouched for the game-winner.

"A shouting, shirt-sleeved crowd of 9,210 went wild when Brumbaugh's bull's eye in the final period pulled the Dukes from almost certain defeat," a local newspaper account detailed.

Coach Ralph Sasse's Bulldogs, who ended the year at a hearty 7-3-1 after the postseason clash, scored first on a 10-yard run by back Ike Pickle. Pickle later boomed an 82-yard punt for an Orange Bowl record that still stands.

After Brumbaugh plunged 1 yard and a PAT kick put the Dukes of Pittsburgh, Pa., ahead 7-6, State reversed the advantage again when tailback Pee Wee Armstrong of Meridian lofted a 40-yard touchdown pass to Fred Walters of Laurel to give the Bulldogs a 12-7 lead. That same twosome had combined for a 65-yard scoring pass to give MSU a stunning 13-7 upset at Army during the 1935 season.

Armstrong's scintillating passes had provided State with the impetus to gain the lead. His aerial strikes set up Pickle's touchdown run prior to his throw to Walters to gain Mississippi State the lead.

Brumbaugh later found Hefferlie for the game-winning TD pass in the fourth quarter. The Dukes edged State after two Bulldog conversion tries had failed.

The narrow loss to Duquesne was a microcosm of the '36 season for State. The Maroons lost three games by a total of 20 points.

1941 ORANGE BOWL

Mississippi State 14
Georgetown 7

January 1, 1941 - Orange Bowl - Miami, Florida

The Associated Press proclaimed following State's standout season: "Mississippi State reigns as undisputed king of football in the Deep South. State's 13-0 trouncing of Alabama and subsequent acceptance of an Orange Bowl bid eliminated any doubt that the Maroons were gridiron kings of these parts."

Almost a year before the United States of America officially entered World War II, Mississippi State downed the Georgetown Hoyas (who reigned strongly in Eastern football circles in those days) 14-7 in the '41 Orange Bowl to end the year with a 10-0-1 record and a No. 9 ranking nationally.

Coach Allyn McKeen's crew scored in the first quarter when tackle John Tripson covered a blocked Hoya punt in the end zone and Wilbur Dees' extra point gave the Bulldogs a quick 7-0 lead.

State's rugged defense took control in the second quarter after the Bulldogs had jumped ahead 14-0 when tailback Billy Jefferson scored on a 2-yard dive play and Sonny Bruce kicked the PAT.

Georgetown dented Coach McKeen's vaunted defense for the lone Hoyas' TD of the day in the third quarter when Benny Castiglia hit paydirt on a 2-yard run. But MSU managed good ball control behind the running of tailback Harvey Johnson and the defensive work of all-America end Buddy Elrod to secure its first bowl win.

State was led by Starkville native Hunter Corhern, a captain of the team and an outstanding guard. MSU was considered to have the finest line in the South during the '40 season, a group that boasted three all-Southeastern Conference performers, plus the aforementioned Elrod, a consensus all-America.

When asked to compare all his great teams at Mississippi State, head coach Allyn McKeen said, "Some of the school's greatest wins came during the 1939 season, but I have to go with the 1940 team as my best."

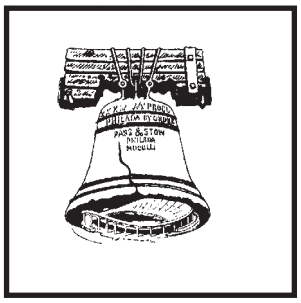
1963 LIBERTY BOWL



Mississippi State 16
NC State 12

December 21, 1963 - Philadelphia Stadium - Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Hot coffee froze on press box ledges between kickoff and halftime, but the action on the field was warm enough to offset eight-degree temperatures and 17 mile-per-hour winds outside as coach Paul Davis' Bulldogs took a 16-12 win over the North Carolina State Wolfpack.

As the Bulldogs capped a 7-2-2 season before their first national television audience (on NBC, with the legendary Lindsey Nelson providing play-by-play) at Philadelphia Stadium, a blocked punt helped provide MSU's margin of victory for the second bowl game in a row.

In the first quarter, MSU end Bill McGuire blocked a Dave Houtz punt at the N.C. State 26, and fellow end Tommy Inman scooped up the loose football and ran it 11 yards for an MSU score. Justin Canale's PAT made it 7-0. Quarterback Sonny Fisher gave the Bulldogs a little more breathing room later in the period as the Laurel, Miss., resident sprinted 3 yards for a second touchdown. Canale's extra-point kick failed, but the future pro football standout later redeemed himself.

He gave MSU a 16-0 second-quarter lead with a 43-yard field goal into the gusty wind.

But North Carolina State made a bit of a comeback bid, aided by 122 yards on 11 penalties assessed against the aggressive Bulldogs. The Wolfpack scored the last two touchdowns of the game, but both two-point conversion attempts failed.

Coach Davis and his team had heaters on the State bench and a Plexiglas canopy to protect them from the frigid air.

"The defense did a good job all day, especially considering the conditions," Davis said. "We had a stronger line."

Mississippi State 26
North Carolina 24

December 28, 1974 - Sun Bowl - El Paso, Texas

Mississippi State's 26-24 Sun Bowl win over North Carolina was one of the truly great contests of the 1974-75 bowl season.

Coach Bob Tyler's Bulldogs, who finished 9-3 and 18th in the nation, set the stage for the game when Most Valuable Offensive Player Terry Vitrano took a handoff from quarterback Rockey Felker and sprinted 55 yards on the game's opening play.

While a rising fog blanketed the field during most of the first half, Vitrano gained big chunks of real estate to end the day with 164 yards on 20 carries, including a game-winning, two-yard touchdown run.

That run capped a 6:29 drive that ate most of the fourth-quarter clock, ending at the 3:41 mark. Three times MSU faced third downs on the drive and State faced a fourth-and-2 at the UNC 25-yard line, where Felker called his own number, clawing for 15 yards. Felker then ran eight more yards to set up Vitrano winning score.

The drive reminded both Tyler and Felker of the Bulldogs' 29-28 win over Memphis State earlier in the year, a game in which State drove 98 yards in the closing two minutes for the win.

All-America defensive tackle Jimmy Webb, named Most Valuable Defensive Player in the game, registered one of his most critical 12 tackles of the day on a fourth-and-short situation at midfield in the fourth quarter to preserve the MSU win.

MSU's all-SEC tailback Walter Packer piled up 183 yards on 24 attempts, scoring on runs of 1 and 16 yards while Vic Nickels kicked field goals of 24 and 32 yards.

Mississippi State's 455 yards of rushing, which still stand as a Sun Bowl record, were just a bit much for the Tar Heels, coached by MSU grad Bill Dooley.

"This team was better than we expected in a lot of ways," Tyler said. "I think we're a year ahead. We established unity in our program that usually takes two seasons to establish. I've never been more confident or enthusiastic about the future than I am right now."

1980 SUN BOWL

Mississippi State 17
Nebraska 31

December 27, 1980 - Sun Bowl - El Paso, Texas

The scene was the same as six years earlier in the Sun Bowl when Mississippi State engaged a team that had as much talent as any football power in the nation.

This bowl trip proved to be less successful, however, as coach Tom Osborne's Huskers prevailed in a 31-17 contest.

Mississippi State had won five consecutive regular-season games to enter the contest with a 9-2 record under coach Emory Bellard, but Nebraska was just a bit too deep and powerful as the Huskers took a 17-0 halftime lead.

State's high-powered offensive attack, which set school records for total offense and rushing offense, later cut the margin to 24-17 behind the option play of freshman quarterback John Bond of Valdosta, Ga. He ran for one touchdown on a 1-yard sneak and hit all-SEC tailback Michael Haddix of Walnut, Miss., for an 11-yard TD pass and MSU's final touchdown.

The day, however, belonged to Nebraska's defense, which held Bond to minus-8 yards rushing on 16 carries, and to seven completions in 19 attempts with two interceptions.

Sophomore kicking specialist Dana Moore from Baton Rouge, La., booted a 47-yard field goal and had a 64-yard punt, enabling him to achieve an MSU-record, 50-yard punting average for the afternoon.

"I am proud of our team and the season we had," Bellard said. "We just flat out gave Nebraska too many opportunities. Our defense played well enough to win. Looking at what we have, we will be back next year."

1981 HALL OF FAME BOWL

Mississippi State 10
Kansas 0

December 31, 1981 - Legion Field - Birmingham, Alabama

With Defensive Most Valuable Player and all-America linebacker Johnie Cooks of Leland, Miss., leading a fierce charge, Mississippi State scored its first bowl shutout win by downing the Kansas Jayhawks of the Big Eight Conference 10-0 to improve its bowl record to 4-2.

It was, indeed, a day for the defense.

The Bulldogs, aided by a steady mist that fell throughout the day, held Kansas to 35 yards rushing on 40 attempts, intercepted a pair of Jayhawk passes, and forced a fumble. State recorded its first shutout since 1979.

Lightning struck early for the Bulldogs as all-SEC defensive back Rob Fesmire of Nashville, Tenn., recovered a Ricky Green fumble on the opening kickoff and the opportunistic Bulldogs scored on the next play. Quarterback John Bond, State's Offensive Most Valuable Player and the game's MVP, sprinted 17 yards around right end on the first play from scrimmage and Bob Morgan's PAT gave the Bulldogs an early 7-0 lead.

Place-kicker Dana Moore iced the game with a 22-yard field goal with just over 11 minutes left in the first half for the final margin of victory. The Bulldogs advanced to 8-4 and moved up to 17th in the final AP national poll.

Moore also set a record, averaging 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks.

Wingback Danny Knight of Natchez, Miss., contributed a big 37-yard sprint down the left sideline on a third-and-long situation while Cooks, defensive tackles Glen Collins, Earnest Barnes and a number of unsung heroes on the specialty teams gathered together to provide the Bulldogs with the ingredients necessary for a satisfying bowl win.

"The whole defensive unit played extremely well," MSU head coach Emory Bellard said. "We didn't ring the bell quite enough on offense, but we did move the ball down the field a good bit."

1991 LIBERTY BOWL

Mississippi State 15
Air Force 38

December 29, 1991 - Liberty Bowl - Memphis, Tennessee

An all-time Liberty Bowl crowd of 61,497 looked on as the wishbone-attack of the Air Force Academy spoiled Mississippi State's return to the bowl scene with a 38-15 victory over the Bulldogs in the 33rd annual Liberty Bowl postseason contest.

Directed by all-WAC quarterback and Liberty Bowl MVP Rob Perez, the Falcons piled up 318 net yards rushing while attempting only two passes in this ESPN telecast. A potent ground attack earned AFA a 37:34-22:26 edge in possession time.

The Falcons jumped on MSU early as they posted three unanswered touchdowns before the Bulldogs dented the scoreboard just before halftime. AFA scored on a pair of 1-yard plunges by Jason Jones and Perez in the opening stanza. A 35-yard fumble return by Air Force's Shannon Yates at the 6:12 mark of the second quarter stretched the lead to 21-0.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard with the final score of the first half, a 4-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sleepy Robinson to tight end Trenell Edwards.

After the intermission, AFA added a third-quarter, 20-yard field goal by Joe Wood and a 31-yard touchdown gallop by Scott Hufford to build the Falcons' insurmountable lead to 31-7 with 14:19 remaining in the contest.

Making its first bowl appearance in 10 years, MSU scored its final points on a 7-yard run by fullback Michael Davis with 7:23 left on the game clock.

Mississippi State 17
North Carolina 21

January 1, 1993 - The Georgia Dome - Atlanta, Georgia

Despite jumping out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, Mississippi State couldn't hold off a North Carolina squad playing an inspired second half as the Tar Heels posted a 21-17 victory in the first Peach Bowl held inside The Georgia Dome.

The Bulldogs jumped on top early, scoring on their first possession when Greg Plump found Olanda Truitt on a 2-yard touchdown pass. MSU added to that lead when Kenny Roberts raced 22 yards on the final play of the first quarter to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 lead.

State had a chance to put the game away in the second quarter, but a pair of Plump-to-Truitt touchdown passes were called back due to Bulldog holding penalties.

Trailing 14-0 at halftime, North Carolina took the second half kickoff and drove 82 yards to score on Natrone Means' 1-yard plunge. Later in the third period, the Tar Heels' Bracey Walker broke through to block a Todd Jordan punt and raced 24 yards into the end zone to tie the game at 14-14.

North Carolina took the lead for good early in the fourth quarter when UNC's Cliff Baskerville intercepted a Plump pass and returned it 44 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

After Chris Gardner's 46-yard field goal made the score 21-17, the Bulldogs had their chances to win the game late. MSU drove inside the Tar Heel 30 twice in the game's final three minutes, but an interception and loss on downs, respectively, doomed the Bulldogs' final chances.

1995 PEACH BOWL

27th ANNUAL PEACH BOWL

Mississippi State 24
NC State 28

January 2, 1995 - The Georgia Dome - Atlanta, Georgia

For the second time in three years, Mississippi State earned a berth in the Peach Bowl. And for the second time in three years, the Bulldogs held a third-quarter lead over its counterpart. But again, State could not maintain that advantage, dropping a 28-24 decision to NC State.

Like it had done two years prior, Mississippi State gained an early advantage in this Peach Bowl match-up. Place-kicker Tim Rogers, MSU's Offensive Player of the Game, booted a 37-yard field goal just 2:21 into the contest, and the Bulldogs had a 3-0 advantage. It would be the first of a bowl-record and school-standard tying five field goals for Rogers.

But, as NC State was able to do throughout the game, the Wolfpack erased that early lead. Running back Tremayne Stephens capped an 80-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to give NCSU a 7-3 lead.

Rogers and Steve Videtich traded field goals around the first-quarter break before the Bulldogs mounted a touchdown drive of their own. Senior running back Michael Davis scored from 11 yards out to give MSU a 13-10 edge.

A pair of big plays opened the door for the Bulldogs to take control of the game as the second half began. Forcing the 'Pack to punt on their first series of the second half, Andre Bennett blocked the NC State kick into the end zone for a safety, and MSU had a two-point lead.

On the ensuing free kick, Keffer McGee returned the punt a bowl-record 50 yards, putting the Bulldogs in business at the NCSU 15-yard line. Unable to advance the ball into the end zone, State settled for a Rogers field goal and its lead was just 18-13.

Three plays later, however, Larry Williams, State's Defensive Player of the Game, put his team back in scoring position with a standout defensive play. On a second-and-16 play from the NCSU 30, Williams sacked quarterback Terry Harvey, stripped him of the football, and then recovered the pigskin at the 21.

But once again, the Bulldog attack was not able to capitalize, and Rogers was forced to convert a 36-yard field goal.

Rejuvenated by the disaster averted, NC State struck for a game-tying touchdown and two-point conversion at the close of the third period. Harvey hit Dallas Dickerson from 3 yards out for the score, and then ran for the extra points.

The Wolfpack used a big play of their own, a 62-yard pass play to set up their go-ahead score. Freshman fullback Carlos King bulled in from 11 yards away and State was down 28-21.

Mississippi State 11
Texas 38

January 1, 1999 - Cotton Bowl - Dallas, Texas

Playing in their first traditional New Year's Day bowl game since the 1941 Orange Bowl, the Bulldogs faced an enormous task in trying to stop the University of Texas and its Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams. Behind Williams' Cotton Bowl record 203 yards rushing and two touchdowns, the Longhorns snapped their seven-game losing slide to Jackie Sherrill and defeated Mississippi State 38-11 in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Texas struck early in the contest behind the arm of quarterback Major Applewhite. The freshman found Wayne McGarity late in the opening period on a 59-yard scoring strike, giving Texas an early 7-0 lead.

The Longhorns took advantage of good field position and a long pass play to take a 14-0 lead, as Applewhite again called McGarity's number for a 52-yard touchdown with 5:11 to go in the first half.

Mississippi State would close out the scoring in the half with a 39-yard field goal from senior Brian Hazelwood.

After showcasing their passing game in the first half, Texas began to exploit a tired Bulldog defense with a running game that featured the NCAA's career rushing leader in Williams, who got the scoring started in the second half with a 37-yard gallop to stretch the Longhorns' lead to 21-3 just 2:26 into the second half. A Kris Stockton field goal would extend the UT lead to 24-3 six minutes later.

The Bulldog offense, led by James Johnson's 112 yards on the ground, still struggled to find its niche against a stubborn Texas defense. An injury to star all-purpose receiver Kevin Prentiss in the opening half made their task even more difficult. Unable to keep the weary MSU defense off the field, the Bulldogs were victimized by another Williams' scoring run at the 2:42 mark of the third period as Texas grabbed control of the contest with a 31-3 advantage.

1999 PEACH BOWL

Mississippi State 17
Clemson 7

December 30, 1999 - The Georgia Dome - Atlanta, Georgia

Behind the impetus that had been the key all season — defense — Mississippi State downed Clemson 17-7 in the 1999 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in Atlanta's Georgia Dome.

The win gave State its 10th victory of the season, grouping the '99 Bulldogs with MSU's '40 edition which also posted 10 victories.

MSU notched the win despite allowing the most yardage it had all season (391), with 301 of that coming from quarterback Brandon Streeter who passed 50 times in the game.

Defense was the norm in the first half for both squads as the teams played to a scoreless tie at halftime.The closest either team got to a score in the first half was when Clemson advanced to State's 9-yard line late in the first quarter. But Tiger Tony Lazzara's field goal attempt was blocked by Bulldog senior Robert Bean, who registered his seventh career blocked kick.

State wasted little time breaking the scoring ice in the second half. After Pig Prather returned the opening kickoff after intermission 45 yards to the MSU 47-yard line, the Bulldogs drove 31 yards on seven plays to set up a 39-yard field goal from Scott Westerfield at the 12:39 mark.

Three possessions later, Clemson threatened to answer, driving to the State 13 where it faced a fourth-and-7. The Tigers elected to go for it, but the MSU defense held firm, with defensive lineman John Hilliard batting down a Streeter pass.

The quarter would end with State leading 3-0. The fourth quarter would be quite a different story in terms of point production, as the teams combined for three touchdowns in the final frame.

State extended its lead to 10-0 on the first full drive of the final period, going 43 yards on 10 plays with quarterback Wayne Madkin scrambling for a 2-yard score. The drive was set up at Clemson's 43-yard line on an interception by Bulldog Eugene Clinton, one of five State pickoffs in the contest.

Clemson would answer on the ensuing possession with its only score of the night. The Tigers drove 70 yards on eight plays with Streeter diving in from a yard out.

But State was not intimidated. The Bulldogs answered that challenge with a solid eight-play, 57-yard charge of their own. Madkin, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, found tailback Dontae Walker on the left side and Walker jaunted 15 yards for the touchdown which iced the game for MSU at 17-7 with 4:31 remaining in regulation.

2000 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Mississippi State 41
Texas A&M 38 (OT)

December 31, 2000 - Independence Bowl - Shreveport, Louisiana

Willie Blade blocked an extra point, Julius Griffith ran it to the end zone for a two-point conversion, and Wayne Madkin scored from 6 yards out — all in overtime — to give Mississippi State a hard-fought, 43-41 decision over Texas A&M in the snow-filled Independence Bowl.

The Aggies took advantage of a couple of early MSU miscues on the snow-covered field to take a 14-0 edge seven minutes into the game. After scoring following a mishandled MSU snap just over two minutes into the contest, A&M continued to control momentum on fullback Ja'Mar Toombs' 4-yard plunge. Toombs had a game-high 193 yards.

Jackie Sherrill's Bulldogs fought back in the second quarter. With Toombs running through the State defense, Dontae Walker returned the favor to the Aggie stoppers, tallying 143 yards of his own. The sophomore took a handoff up the middle and scurried for 40 of those yards over the goal line to cut the lead.

With just over a minute until halftime, State scored behind Wayne Madkin. After the junior quarterback rushed for 10 yards, he connected on two pass plays, the second a four-yard score to Dicenzo Miller to tie the game at 14.

A&M bounced back with 31 seconds left in the half to take a 20-14 lead into the locker room. Quarterback Mark Farris lofted a ball high and deep into the heavy falling snow, finding Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard score.

The Aggies tried to put the game out of reach with two fourth-quarter touchdowns. On the opening play of the period, Farris once again went deep, this time connecting with Bethel Johnson on a 35-yard strike. A two-point conversion put the Aggies up 28-21. Toombs extended the lead on the following possession, rushing in from 13 yards to give A&M a 35-21 edge.

Walker cut the lead back to seven as he rushed in from 32 yards out, and, after a Marco Minor interception put MSU at the Aggie 4-yard line, Madkin found tight end Donald Lee in the end zone for the touchdown that sent the game into overtime, tied 35-35.

In the extra session, Toombs rushed in from 25 yards out on the first play to put A&M up 41-35. Blade reached up and blocked the Aggie extra point try. Eugene Clinton picked up the loose ball and pitched to Griffith who ran it in for two points.

Faced with a must-score situation on State's first overtime try, Madkin rushed down to the Aggies' 6-yard line and then took a keeper into the end zone to clinch the 43-41 win in what has become known as "Snow Bowl 2000".

Mississippi State 10
UCF 3

December 29, 2007 - Liberty Bowl Stadium - Memphis, Tennessee

Mississippi State cashed in on Central Florida's fourth turnover of the game, marching to the lone touchdown of the day late in the fourth quarter, to defeat the Knights 10-3 in the 49th renewal of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, a game that was otherwise very defensive in nature.

With the win, MSU ended the 2007 season at 8-5, its most wins since 2000, and improved to 2-0 all-time over UCF which ended the year 10-4 after winning its last seven games and claiming the Conference USA crown. The Bulldogs also improved to 7-6 all-time in bowl games with the victory and has now been victorious its last three bowl appearances.

The late score, a 1-yard plunge by running back Anthony Dixon, came with just 1:54 remaining in the game. It capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive, State's longest of the day by almost 20 yards, that was setup by Bulldog Keith Fitzhugh's interception of Knight quarterback Kyle Israel, his third pick of the contest.

But until that point in the game, neither team had generated much offense in a game very much controlled by the defenses. Only two second quarter field goals - one by each team - graced the scoreboard in the first three quarters and the teams would combined for just 418 yards of total offense in the affair.

After a scoreless first quarter started the lowest scoring first half in Liberty Bowl history, UCF finally broke scoring ice after gaining excellent field position at the Bulldog 46 early in the second period. The Knights then moved the ball 18 yards to set up a Michael Torres 45-yard field goal that just cleared the crossbar. UCF led 3-0 with 11:49 to go before the intermission.

After the Knights forced a State punt on the next drive, the Bulldogs got their first break of the afternoon. MSU's Derek Pegues, named the game's Most Valuable Player, picked off the first of two passes at the Knight 46 and returned it 40 yards to the 6-yard line. UCF stood strong, however, and held MSU to a 22-yard Adam Carlson field goal, tying the game at the 6:02 mark.

UCF would have scoring chances on two consecutive drives in the third and fourth periods but Torres, who came into the game having hit 19-of-21 field goals on the year, would miss from 32 and 37 yards on those drives, negating offensive momentum the Knights had built at that point in the contest.

Dixon ended the day with 86 yards on 24 carries for the Bulldogs, who managed just 198 yards from scrimmage the entire game.

State's defense held Central Florida's star running back, Kevin Smith, somewhat in check. The nation's leading rusher still tallied 119 yards on the ground, coming up just 62 yards shy of breaking Barry Sanders' NCAA single-season record.

The game's attendance of 63,816 established a new Liberty Bowl record. The previous record of 61,497 was set in 1991 when the Bulldogs played Air Force.

Mississippi State 52
Michigan 14

January 1, 2011 - EverBank Field - Jacksonville, Fla.

It was an offensive clinic from start to finish for Mississippi State, as the Bulldogs manufactured 485 total yards en route to a dominating 52-14 win against Michigan in the 66th annual Gator Bowl at EverBank Field.

Mississippi State, now 7-7 all-time in bowl games, also set several school bowl records with points scored (52) and margin of victory (38). In addition, the 485 total yards of offense were second only to the 499 gained against North Carolina in the 1974 Sun Bowl.

Chris Relf, named the game's MVP, completed 18 of his 23 passes for 281 yards and three touchdowns. The 281 passing yards were the second most in MSU bowl history. They are also the only two quarterbacks to throw for more than 200 yards in a bowl game. Relf, a junior from Montgomery, Ala., also scored on the ground from 1-yard out and finished with 311 total yards.

As prolific as MSU's offense was, so too was the defense. The Bulldogs held the Wolverines (7-6) to 342 yards, with 153 coming in the opening quarter. Michigan did enjoy a 14-10 lead after the first frame, but failed to score another point the remainder of the game.

Quarterback Denard Robinson was limited to a season-low 51 yards after grounding out 59 in the first quarter.

Robinson's arm produced the game's first points when he connected with Roy Roundtree for a 10-yard scoring strike. MSU quickly answered, though, and evened the score when Relf hit Arceto Clark from 4 yards out.

On their next possession, the Bulldogs took their first lead at 10-7 on a 42-yard field goal by Derek DePasquale. Back came the Wolverines, however, who went back on top following a 27-yard touchdown pass from Robinson to Martavious Odoms.

That play, though, would be Michigan's last highlight of the game. From that point, it was all Mississippi State.

With 11:38 left in the first half, Vick Ballard scored the first of his three touchdowns to give MSU a 17-14 lead. Then with 6:35 remaining, Relf found the end zone to extend the advantage to 24-14.

But the Bulldogs weren't done, as they scored again with 25 seconds left, this time on a 15-yard pass from Relf to Ricco Sanders, his first-career TD reception, for a 31-14 lead.

In the second half, the Bulldogs, who converted 9 of their 17 third-down attempts and were 5 of 5 on fourth down, got two more touchdowns from Ballard covering 1 and 7 yards. Ballard finished the year with 19 rushing touchdowns, breaking the single-season mark of 16 set by Jackie Parker in 1952.

MSU's final points were the result of a 31-yard pass from Relf to Michael Carr, the first of the freshman's young and promising career.

WELCOME TO OUR STATE

UNIVERSITY HISTORY

Mississippi State University forms part of a cohesive community with the growing agricultural-commercial-industrial town of Starkville. Located in the eastern part of north-central Mississippi, it is 125 miles northeast of Jackson and 23 miles west of Columbus; it is served by Highways 82,12 and 25 and by air service through the Golden Triangle Regional Airport 14 miles east. Away from urban complexities, the community enjoys many intellectual, cultural, and recreational advantages: the MSU-Starkville Civic Symphony and Chorus; the Starkville Community Theater; the University Lyceum series, bringing professional musical, dramatic, and artistic groups and performers to the campus; art exhibits, plays, and recitals by local and visiting artists; public radio and public television programs through Mississippi Public Broadcasting performances by popular musical groups of regional and national celebrity; frequent intercollegiate athletic events in modern facilities; and a variety of recreational opportunities on playing fields and courts, in neighboring forests, fields, and lakes, and along the nearby Tennessee-Tombigbee Waterway.

THE UNIVERSITY

Mississippi State University is a comprehensive, doctoral-degree-granting university offering to a diverse and capable student body a wide range of opportunities and challenges for learning and growth; to the world of knowledge, vigorous and expanding contributions in research, discovery, and application; and to the State and its people in every region, a variety of expert services. Mississippi State University is designated as a Doctoral/Extensive institution by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. It is representative of the American Land-Grant tradition and distinctive in its own character and spirit, born of its Mississippi heritage and the vision and loyal perseverance of those who have labored in its development. Mississippi State University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges, Inc. to award baccalaureate, masters, specialist, and doctorate degrees.

An able faculty, drawn from the best institutions in all parts of the nation, strive earnestly to demonstrate excellence in teaching, while producing in their specialized studies scholarly books, articles, and conference papers that gain respect for themselves, the University, and the state. Thus they ensure for their students instruction that is in immediate touch with current knowledge and thought. A body of energetic researchers, both faculty and other, assisted by an effective research administration, places Mississippi State among the first one hundred universities in the nation in research and development in the sciences and engineering. The University's service agencies are similarly distinguished, earning the respect and support of their varied constituencies throughout the state, as well as in other states and in foreign countries.

The Drill Field at the center of campus

On Dec. 10, 2008, Dan Mullen was hired as Mississippi State's 32nd head football coach.

In his first game as head coach on Sept. 5, 2009, Mullen led the Bulldogs to a 45-7 win over Jackson State.

Mullen and the Bulldogs rolled over Ole Miss 41-27 in the 2009 finale.

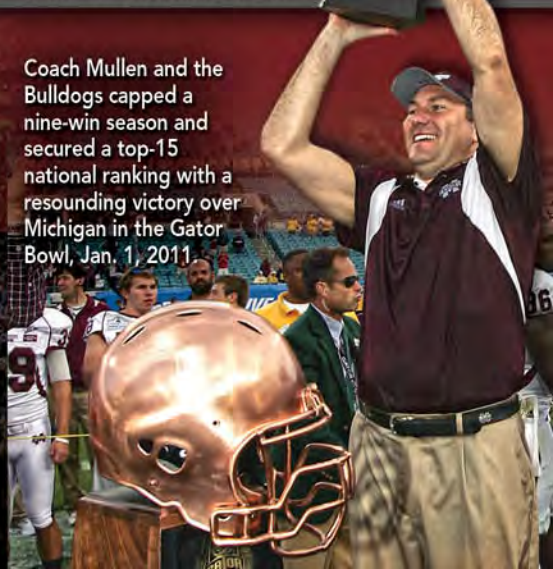
DAN MULLEN

State began a six-game winning streak with a 24-12 victory over Georgia on Sept. 25, 2010.

The Bulldogs topped Florida in Gainesville 10-7 on Oct. 16, 2010 and cracked the top-25 for the first time since 2001.

Dan Mullen becomes the first Mississippi State coach since 1940 to win the Egg Bowl in his first two seasons.

Bulldog fans have responded to Mississippi State's recent success on the gridiron, selling out Davis Wade Stadium the last 10 games. In seven games at Davis Wade Stadium last season, Mississippi State averaged 54,999 fans a game, a new single-season record and the second consecutive year the stadium single-season average attendance record has fallen.



Coach Mullen and the Bulldogs capped a nine-win season and secured a top-15 national ranking with a resounding victory over Michigan in the Gator Bowl, Jan. 1, 2011.
